John Holloway

GORHAM, Maine-- John J. Holloway, 85, of South Street, died Monday morning at Devonshire Manor in Portland after a brief illness.

He was born in Naugatuck, Conn., Jan. 4, 1893, son of the late Joseph and Matilda (Steighler) Holloway. Mr. Holloway had been a Gorham resident the last one and one-half years, previously residing in New Britain, Conn., for 65 years. He was a retired employee of Pratt & Whitney Aircraft in West Hartford, Conn. He was a graduate of Wentworth Institute in Boston. He was a communicant of Trinity Episcopal Church, Portland, a member of the American Association of Retired Persons and Adelphi Masonic Lodge, AF and AM, of Fairhaven, Conn.

He leaves his wife, Gladys (Fox) Holloway of Gorham; one daughter, Mrs. John (Eunice) Shryock of Gorham; two sisters, Mrs. Mae Bradbury and Mrs. Emily Dillon, both of Naugatuck; one half-sister, Mrs. Ellen Murtha of Naugatuck; four grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at the Alderson Funeral Home, 201 Meadow St., Naugatuck, with the Rev. Andrew D. Smith, rector of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, Naugatuck, at the convenience of the family. Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Adelphi Lodge will conduct Masonic services at the funeral home Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.
