

Eunice Harriet (Holloway) Shryock

PORTLAND – Eunice Harriet (Holloway) Shryock, died

Eunice Harriet (Holloway) Shryock

Wednesday, Oct. 5, 2005 at her home after a year-long battle with cancer.

She was born in Naugatuck,
Conn., on June 7, 1918, daughter of the late John Joseph and Gladys (Fox)

Holloway. She graduated from the Norwich Art School in Norwich Conn.

Eunice had been a Portland resident the last ten years, previously residing in Westbrook and Gorham.

She worked for years in the restaurant industry for a variety of businesses including the Crescent Beach Inn, Boone's, The Galley at Handy Boat, Holiday Inn by the Bay and the Sheraton Inn. She most recently worked for Maine Gold and Silver until August, 2004.

Eunice had many friends that she had met throughout her career and in her retirement. She was an animal lover who always had a dog or cat as a pet. She had a quick wit, and was always there with a rejoinder. She was active in a local post-stroke support group, and volunteered for the Maine Audubon Society.

She married John William Shryock in Louisville, Ky., on Jan. 13, 1944.

She is predeceased by her husband John in 1980.

She leaves three sons, J. Richard Shryock and his wife Sandy of Falmouth, Robert James and wife Lynn of Scarborough, David William Shryock and his wife Pattie of Waterboro; and a daughter, Laurie (Shryock) Latham and her husband Bill of Portland; three grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; and seven step-great-grandchildren.

There will be no visiting hours.
Family and friends are invited to attend a reception to celebrate her life which will be held 4 p.m. at the DoubleTree Hotel, 1230 Congress St., South Portland.
